

Welsh Language Trainee Director

Sherman Theatre supported by Theatr Genedlaethol Cymru, is looking for a Welsh Language Trainee Director to work on our fun packed Christmas Show for ages 3-6.

Sherman Theatre is committed to providing opportunities for emerging Welsh language directors from all backgrounds to develop their craft, skills and professional practice, whilst also expanding their industry and community networks.

The Welsh Language Director scheme has been created to offer Welsh Language directors the opportunity to gain experience directing Studio level professional productions. Supported by Theatr Genedlaethol Cymru, the Trainee Director will assistant direct our Christmas Show for ages 3-6 with a view to direct that show in the future.

The Christmas Show for ages 3-6 in 2024 will be Little Red Riding Hood / Yr Hugan Fach Goch by Katie Elin Salt, and directed by Alice Eklund.

Little Red Riding Hood / Yr Hugan Fach Goch is the perfect introduction to theatre for children aged 3-6. It's a fun packed, actor-musician retelling of this classic story.

Fee: £3,000

The Production Schedule is as follows:

Rehearsals begin:	Monday 7 October 2024
Tech week at Sherman Theatre:	Monday 28 October 2024
First Previews:	Friday 1 and Saturday 2 November 2024
Tour of South Wales (no overnights):	Monday 4– Saturday 23 November 2024
First Performance back at Sherman Theatre:	Monday 25 November 2024
Press Performances at Sherman Theatre:	Saturday 30 November 2024
Final Performances:	Saturday 4 January 2025

To apply please submit a covering letter to recruitment@shermantheatre.co.uk about why this feels like the right job for you at the right time, and a CV of previous directing experience.

Closing date for submissions: noon, Friday 3 May 2024

Meetings with Shortlisted Candidates: Thursday 9 May 2024