THE ENGINE ROOM OF WELSH THEATRE

Sherman Theatre is right at the heart of theatre-making in south Wales. Throughout 2025 our Literary Team continued to develop and nurture Welsh and Wales-based writers at all stages of their careers. The Sherman team supported emerging companies and theatre makers and served as an inclusive and welcoming creative space for the whole sector.

200

Throughout 2025 our Literary team interacted or worked with more than 200 Welsh and Wales-based writers

We ran 17 sessions for writers which equates to more than 36 hours of free training

36

We read more than 50 scripts by writers neither commissioned nor programmed by the Sherman, showing our wider sector support

We met more than 100 separate writers in one-to-one settings, to talk about their plays and support their career development

We offered more than 300 hours of free writing space to our artists, using the Writers' Room in the building as a shared resource

In April 2025, we began a new partnership with Bad Wolf to support the ongoing work of the Sherman's Literary department. In addition to providing vital sponsorship, this partnership will also facilitate a widening of opportunities for writers wanting to create work for stage and screen.

At the Edinburgh Festival Fringe we supported a fourth consecutive emerging Welsh artist or company as part of the Pleasance's Edinburgh National Partnerships programme. RELAY by Leila Navabi at the Pleasance Courtyard played to packed houses throughout the run and deeply resonated with audiences.

Alongside this, the Sherman supported the recipients of the Wales in Edinburgh bursaries during their time at the Fringe.

In September 2025, we supported and co-produced NO MAN'S LAND by Rachel Trezise with Kyle Stead and RCT Theatres.

GALVANISING YOUNG PEOPLE

Our Youth Theatre schemes inspire young participants to make a better world, in their own way. The schemes encourage young people to not just express themselves creatively but also to make an active contribution to the world around them.

We worked collaboratively with Cardiff Council's SAFE Partnership / Youth Endowment Fund around HOT CHICKS to offer creative workshops to vulnerable young people resulting in a sharing of work and gala event at Swansea Grand Theatre with Grand Ambition and YHub.

In April, the Sherman once again became a hub for young creativity from across south Wales as it hosted its YOUTH THEATRE FESTIVAL showcasing the brightest youth theatre companies, whilst also giving participants an opportunity to meet others and learn new skills.

In Spring, THE PILOT by Jennifer Lunn, an innovative and inspiring new collaboration united the voices of our two key creative development programmes with one of Wales's leading writers. Award-winning playwright Jennifer Lunn worked with the current cohort of our Introduction to Playwriting programme, for ages 15-18, to develop this bold new play performed by our senior Sherman Youth Theatre members.

Our summer Youth Theatre production THE HAUNTING OF SHERMAN HOUSE brought together all of the scheme's age groups on the Studio Stage.

theatre works!

In December 2025 we were able to support two schools in Cardiff to bring over 400 young people to enjoy a performance of Alice: Return to Wonderland, our Main House Christmas show, thanks to a grant from theatre works!

SUSTAINABILITY

Arts Capital Investment

In October 2025, we successfully applied for an Arts Capital Investment grant from Arts Council of Wales to support vital building repair work and replacement of ageing equipment.

Theatres Trust

In February 2025 we were fortunate to be one of nine theatres awarded funding from the Theatres Trust, via the Theatre Improvement Scheme in partnership with the Wolfson Foundation. This support has enabled us to begin the process of upgrading our stage lighting to energy efficient LEDs, helping to improve energy efficiency and reduce energy consumption.

ACCESSIBILITY AT THE HEART

Craidd

Sherman Theatre is proud to be part of the Craidd initiative. Craidd aims for access and inclusion to be at the core of theatre in Wales. The consortium consists of Theatr Clwyd, Sherman Theatre, Pontio, Torch Theatre and Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama.

Mobile Connect

In 2025, a Mobile Connect audio enhancement system was installed to make the Sherman more accessible to Deaf and hard of hearing audiences. The addition of Mobile Connect and a hearing loop system in not only our two auditoriums but across our spaces has improved access across the building.

Deaf Theatre Club

Our vibrant Deaf Theatre Club expanded throughout 2025 and increased engagement.
